The railroad line from Stralsund to the Isle of Ruegen is carried to the so-called Ruegendamm. Rail traffic via Sassnitz to Sweden, which is maintained by a railroad ferry, is directed via Stralsund. Barth [REDACTED] now is the terminal of the Velgast-Prerow line, since the Barth-Zingst-Prerow railroad line has been dismantled. Damgarten-Nord [REDACTED] is on the Stralsund-Rostock railroad line. Puetnitz air- 25X1 field, which was renamed Boddenwerft, is supplied from Damgarten. Velgast [REDACTED] is on the Stralsund-Damgarten-Rostock railroad line, the northernmost east-west route. Grimmen [REDACTED] is on the Berlin-Neustrelitz-Stralsund railroad line, an important north-south route.
